

Branford Marsalis will headline the 'Tres dies de jazz' concert series in Tiana, organized by CAN REON

Tiana, April 9th 2025

On July 9, 10 and 11, the best contemporary jazz will come to Tiana with the concert series *Tres dies de jazz, organized by CAN REON with the collaboration of Tiana City Council.

The inauguration, which will take place on July 9 at 21:00h, will feature one of the most important figures of international jazz, Branford Marsalis, who will offer in CAN REON his only performance in Spain in 2025.

The environment of the masia, surrounded by nature and vineyards, will be the ideal place to enjoy in an intimate way -the capacity is limited to only 350 people- the virtuosity of one of the most respected saxophonists of contemporary jazz worldwide and the musicians who accompany him: pianist Joey Calderazzo, bassist Eric Revis and drummer Justin Faulkner, with whom he has just released his new album Belonging and with whom he forms the quartet considered one of the most solid and cohesive ensembles of jazz.

Instrumentalist, composer, orchestra conductor and educator, in his four-decade career has released thirty-seven jazz albums, three classical albums, two soundtracks and has collaborated on more than sixty records. He has shared the stage with legends such as Miles Davis, Dizzy Gillespie and Sonny Rollins, among others. Marsalis has also explored other musical fields that have led him to be a top collaborator on albums by artists such as Sting, Tina Turner, Crosby, Stills & Nash, Bruce Hornsby, Youssou N'Dour and the Grateful Dead, among others.

Although he is a member of the acclaimed Marsalis family (who, from New Orleans, have contributed to defining jazz in the last decades of the 20th century and the first decades of the 21th), his career has written its own chapter in the history of this genre, winning three Grammy Awards, among other accolades.

Afterwards, the Tres dies de jazz programme will continue with two free concerts that will spread jazz throughout Tiana with some of the most outstanding and innovative local artists.

The first of these performances will be offered the Xavi Torres Trio feat. Seamus Blake and will take place on Thursday 10 July at 22:00h, in the Jardí de Lola Anglada in Tiana. Xavi Torres is one of the most internationally renowned catalan pianists thanks to his innovative style that fuses traditional sounds with contemporary elements, and which he performs with flawless sensitivity and technique. His trio is completed by Marco Zenini on double bass and Andreu Pitarch on drums. On this occasion they will also be accompanied by the British saxophonist Seamus Blake, one of the leading exponents of jazz today, known for his sophistication and daring improvisations on stage.

Tres dies de jazz will end with another must for lovers of this genre: the performance of the Big Band Jazz Maresme feat. Ronald Baker, on Friday 11 July at 10:00 pm at the Antic Camp de Futbol in Tiana.

The Big Band Jazz Maresme has been promoting quality jazz in the Maresme region for 20 years, becoming one of the Big Bands of reference in Catalonia.

They have performed at major festivals such as Cruïlla, the Terrassa Jazz Festival and the Cerdanyola Blues Festival, among other essential musical events. On this occasion they will be performing alongside Ronald Baker, one of the great trumpet players of the latest generations of North American jazz, who currently lives in Paris and has played at the best international festivals (Montreal Jazz Festival in Canada, Montreux Jazz Festival in Switzerland and the Jazz at the Library in New Jersey, among others).

With this line-up, Tres dies de jazz becomes a unique event, capable of bringing together the best international figures and the most outstanding local proposals.

This is a further step by CAN REON in promoting the best jazz, and joins other previous years' proposals, such as those of John Scofield & Dave Holland (2024), Brad Mehldau (2023) and Marco Mezquida (2022).
